$50,000 INCREASE SOUGHT IN HIGHER PHONE RATES

ELECTION WILL BE CALLED ON BAND, PARK PROPOSALS

Council Wants Voice of People in Either Tax Increase or Curtailment

WANT VOTING TO BE SOON

Three Issues Will Be on Ballots and Decision Will Determine Course

An election will be called in the city soon to give the people an opportunity to express their opinion on band concerts, park expenses and an advertising fund. Realizing that something has to be done in regard to the city finances—either the park, music and advertising fund tax be increased, or some of these activities curtailed, the city council last night discussed the future action. The tax rate is to be fixed in August and it is the plan to have the election before then. Edward E. Gray, city attorney, was asked to prepare an ordinance providing for the election. It is the tentative plan to have three issues on the ballot, each independent from the other. One would cover the band concert question, one the parks, and one advertising.

A study would be made to determine how much of a tax would be necessary to cover each item and when the people vote, they will know how much each item will cost. When the present parks, music and advertising tax was voted about 20 years ago, the city did not have the Euclid avenue parkway, the San Antonio Heights park and other small plots throughout the city. The growth of the park requirements has consumed so much money that this fund is at present overdrawn $1200. Looking to the future, the council sees the immediate necessity of either increasing the taxes for these three features or curtailing the activity.

Autos Saved From Fire by Action at L.G. Packing House

Prompt action on the part of officials at the new packing house of the Upland Lemon Growers' association saved nearly a score of automobiles from being damaged or ruined by fire this morning. A workman cleaning off the vacant lot at Eighth street and Fourth avenue, south of the railroad tracks, started fire to the brush, with the cars parked here and there on the property. Some of the machines, owned by the association employees, were within a few feet of the flames when they were removed. The Upland Fire department responded to a call and checked the spread of the flames. A call at 11 o'clock last night took the department to the auto camp grounds on San Bernardino road, where underbrush had caught on fire.

Springers Will Greet Sons in the North; Newlywed Couple

Leaving here June 15 on a motor tour to the north, Mr. and Mrs. William Springer will visit their son Jack in Portland and also greet their son Norman and his bride, the newlyweds accompanying them on their return trip to Upland. On June 21, Norman and his bride will leave for the coast after the wedding ceremony at Atlantic City, arriving in Portland June 25. After a short visit with Jack, who is district manager of a large advertising agency, the Springers will return here. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Springer plan to be here for three weeks. He is connected with the Raymond Whitecomb tours, Boston, and during his vacation is getting married and making the trip across the continent.

MRS. SHOJI FOUND DEAD IN BATHROOM

Japanese Woman Dies Suddenly in 18th Street Home; Funeral Today

Dying, presumably, from a heart attack, Mrs. K. G. Shoji was found dead in the bathroom of her home on Eighteenth street at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning. Although Mrs. Shoji, who is a member of one of the well-known Japanese families of Southern California, had received medical treatment at times during the past year, she apparently was in good health. A neighbor spent some time at the Shoji home Tuesday evening and Mrs. Shoji seemed to be feeling well and was in good spirits.

When the neighbor left about 9:30, Mrs. Shoji stated she would take a bath and went into the bathroom, while other members of the family retired. About 2 a.m., Mr. Shoji woke with a start, experiencing a premonition that his wife needed help. Finding she was not in the bed, he went to the children's room and from there he noticed a light in the bathroom and on the floor in the doorway he found his wife's body, clad in her night clothes. Evidently she had fallen as she started to leave the bathroom, probably about 10 o'clock.

After an investigation by Coroner A. W. U'ren, it was found death was due to natural causes. Mrs. Shoji was a native of Japan and was 49 years of age. She had lived here with her family for a number of years. She is survived by her husband and one son, Kubo, and two daughters, Koko and Helen. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church at 2:30 this afternoon, the services being in

CONTRACTOR SKIPS AND WORKMEN LEFT MINUS $2000 PAY

Manager of Company Building M. O. D. Structure Is Sought by Police

TO START WORK AGAIN

28 Men Fail to Get Pay With Money Already Advanced to Builder

Departure of William Ford, general contractor in the construction of the new Mutual Orange Distributors packing house on Euclid avenue, from the scene of activity with approximately $2000 due the workmen, has temporarily caused a halt in the construction operations.

Warrant for Ford's arrest on charges of violating the state's wage laws has been issued and sent to Los Angeles, but no word of the man's capture or arrest has been received by police here. Nearly 30 men were working on the new structure when Ford announced to them that as far as he was concerned the construction had to stop.

Workmen demanded their pay and sought to obtain it from him, but the contractor escaped and as far as known here Ford is still free. He was bonded, however, and the workers are eventually assured of their pay, I. H. Weaver, M. O. D. representative here, said.

As manager for the International General Contractors, Ltd., which had the contract for the construction, Ford had received more than $12,000 from the M. O. D. with which to meet the current obligations, such as labor payments. Mr. Weaver said that Ford should have had several thousand dollars of this amount still on hand.

The break between the workmen and Ford came May 23, according to the complaints filed with Judge George R. Crane, but the matter was not brought into court until this week. Three warrants for Ford's arrest were issued, being requested by W. A. Butcher, A. E. Pool and O. F. Smith. It is also known that Ford had contracted other debts in Upland. Work on the packing house will be resumed within a short time Mr. Weaver said.

Planning Commission Officially Appointed

Upland's city planning commission is today officially in existence, with the appointment of the members being made by P. H. McQuillen, mayor, last night. W. K. Beattie will serve a four-year period, with Fred W. Palmer for three years, while John W. Shepperson and C. A. Baeuerlein were named for a two-year period. Ted C. Combs and Earl E. Marsh will serve for one year. Other members are R. G. Manley, city service manager; F. H. Manker, city councilman, and Edward E. Gray, city attorney, who will serve during their terms of office with the city.

Intoxicated Man Runs Over His Son

Driving his machine over his 4-year-old son and attempting to assault his wife with a chair, W. M. Wandfluh, 159 South Ninth avenue, was taken in charge by Upland police last night, after he returned to his home intoxicated. The child was not seriously injured, other than scratches and bruises. The man experienced difficulty in driving the car into his garage and in the confusion the child got under the wheels. The man was described by police as a common drunk and he faces such a charge before Judge George R. Crane.

Alan Goodban, small son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Goodban, has been ill for the past week and, although he is somewhat improved, is still confined to his bed.

Baccalaureate Sunday Beginning of Chaffey Commencement Program

As Dr. Robert C. Stone, pastor of the Presbyterian church, speaks in the baccalaureate services in the Chaffey amphitheater at 5:30 o'clock Sunday evening, the greatest Chaffey commencement ever planned will get under way and 334 students will be assembled together for the last time.

Of these, 228 will be high school seniors, and 106 junior college sophomores. The baccalaureate service will officially mark the beginning of the commencement exercises which will continue until June 17, when the seniors will receive their diplomas. The junior college graduation exercises will be held on June 13.

The Methodist, Presbyterian and Mennonite churches will not hold evening services in view of the baccalaureate sermon. Other local churches as well as the Cucamonga Community church will hold regular Sunday evening services.

Rev. A. J. Neuenschwander, Rev. Frederick Draeger and Rev. F. S. Carter will assist Dr. Stone.

One of the highlights of the commencement week program comes next Wednesday when the combined musical organizations of Chaffey will appear in a concert under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. S. Earle Blakelee. While this is free, it is considered as one of the best programs ever to be given in the institution.

Appearance of alumni in an orchestra will be an interesting feature of the high school graduation services June 13. Students who in the past played under the direction of Fred Wilding, will again be under his leadership in one of the first concerts of its kind. Junior college musicians and speakers will provide the remainder of the program, which will come to an end when J. C. Jones, president of the Chaffey board, presents the diplomas.

Graduates Number Nearly Doubles

Increasing its size nearly 100 per cent in nine years, the graduating class at Chaffey high school June 13 will number about 228. The definite figure will not be known until later. In 1921, 128 students received diplomas, and nine years later, the number of students has been swelled to an additional 100.

Last year 225 seniors received diplomas. The record in the number of graduates since 1921 follows:

1922	145
1923	171
1924	166
1925	183
1926	163

MRS. PODRASNIK IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

Well-Known Resident Passes After Long Illness; Plans Not Made

Following a protracted illness, Mrs. Alice Podrasnik, wife of Alois Podrasnik, died at 10 o'clock last night at her home on Mountain avenue, San Antonio Heights. Although she had been in poor health for several years, her condition did not seem serious until about two days ago when she suffered a collapse and her strength rapidly waned until she passed away.

Mrs. Podrasnik was born in Wisconsin, her parents being natives of Germany and Austria, and she had been a resident of Upland for 24 years, having a great many friends throughout this section.

Besides her husband, Alois Podrasnik, Mrs. Podrasnik leaves a son, Joseph Podrasnik, of New Hampshire, and a daughter, Mrs. Mary Wass of Taft, and a sister, Miss Thresa Schless, who has made her home with the Podrasniks for a number of years and who was with her sister throughout her illness.

Funeral services will be held at the Presbyterian church with Dr. R. C. Stone the officiating minister, but the time of the service will not be determined until word is received from the son in the east, and it is known if he will be able to come here for the funeral.

The Stone funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

CITY WILL STUDY PHONE RATE DATA

Edward E. Gray Believes Old Franchise Still in Effect on Charges

Attitude of Edward E. Gray, city attorney, in regard to the Ontario-Upland Telephone company's application for increased rates is that the company is going beyond its rights in asking for an increase.

It is his contention that when the 50-year franchise was granted in 1906, the rates were specified and that the franchise is a contract which is still in existence, he said in discussing the legal angle. He indicated that the matter might be taken to the courts, if necessary, and he expressed the belief that the 1906 franchise would be recognized.

The rates provided then that a one-party line would not cost more than $21 a year; two-party line, $15, and $15 on four or more party line.

This franchise was given to D. B. Wynne "his successors and assigns."

Mr. Gray will also seek to ascertain the capacity of E. L. Irwin, assistant to the vice-president and general manager, who was the principal witness at the hearing.

The attorney suggested the idea that Mr. Irwin may have some personal interest in the outcome and that he might have guaranteed the company success in the venture before it was started.

It was estimated that the preparation for the hearing cost in the

FIREWORKS JULY 4 PLANNED HERE IN BIG CELEBRATION

Lone Hill May Be Scene of Display For All in the Citrus Belt

BALL TEAMS MAY PLAY

Clubs, City United in Giving Varied Program on Holiday in City

Fourth of July celebration, including a mammoth fireworks display on Lone Hill, is today being planned by the various organizations in the city and will be presented largely through the efforts of the Red Hill Country club and the American Legion.

Only the fireworks display, which it is estimated will take about 1½ hours to present, is definitely planned, but under the direction of certain civic leaders other events are being considered for the day, especially the afternoon.

As in the past, the Red Hill club officials had planned fireworks, but Earl E. Marsh, American Legion commander here, conceived the idea of enlarging the display and making the occasion a city-wide event. The Legion Tuesday night voted to contribute $25 toward the cause. An effort will be made to obtain funds from the service clubs, the chamber and the city, which when combined with the funds allotted by the country club, will make one of the biggest fireworks displays in the citrus district.

Details will be completed as soon as possible. Likely events for the day include a band concert, a patriotic program, and athletic events.

DAVE MEEK HEADS CHAFFEY STUDENTS

Betty Lee Bodenhamer, Another Uplander, Honored in Elections

Bringing to Chaffey more honors than any other Upland student during the year, Dave Meek has been recognized as the outstanding student leader and is today the new president of the Chaffey student body.

His election this week follows that of Oscar Baer's selection last week as president of the junior college student body.

With these two Uplanders chosen for the highest honors possible in the respective institutions, students from this city continued to rank among the best in the southland's leading prep educational schools.

Another Uplander, Betty Lee Bodenhamer, won the office of vice-president, and is following in the footsteps of her brother, Paul Bodenhamer, who held various class offices, and served as jaycee student president in his last year. Other persons elected were: Marjory Taylor, secretary; Miriam Hendrickson, treasurer; James Donley, business manager, and Paul Cushing, yell leader.

Meek served as president of the junior class and captain of the southland championship basketball team, and on the track team this year.

neighborhood of $500,000. Between now and September 23, when the next hearing will be held, Mr. Gray and all the other interested parties in the hearing will make a thorough study of the facts.

Mr. Gray explained that the city is not legally required to study the matter, but that he and others are interested in the matter of protecting the public's utility expenses.

Named President of Upland Club

MISS HELEN HILTY
Unanimously Elected President of the Upland Business and Professional Women's Club

MISS HELEN HILTY NEW CLUB LEADER

Officers Elected by Business and Professional Women's Club

Elected unanimously at a business meeting held following the dinner program Tuesday night in Crowell hall, Miss Helen Hilty is the new president of the Upland Business and Professional Women's club.

Miss Hilty, who for the past year has been the club's efficient treasurer, is one of the organization's loyal younger members and a faithful supporter of its activities. Serving with Miss Hilty will be Miss Margaret Wardlaw, first vice president, Mrs. Lucy H. Jorgenson (re-elected), corresponding secretary; Miss Linda Schmidt (retiring business manager) treasurer; Miss Bertha Watson, business manager, and Mrs. Una R. Winter, auditor. Miss Elizabeth Fossett, retiring auditor, was elected as recording secretary, but found it necessary to offer her resignation, which was accepted. This vacancy and that of second vice-president will be filled at the next board meeting. The nominations were presented by the nominating committee, Mrs. Mark H. Bailey, chairman, and the vote for the several officers was unanimous.

Mrs. Margaret Harris Wright, retiring president and one of the clubs most popular members, has served faithfully and efficiently throughout her term. Actuated by her spontaneous enthusiasm she has spared neither time nor effort in furthering the interests of the club, and quietly and often without her activity being revealed, she has performed much of the detail work that has kept the organization operating smoothly.

During the business meeting the question of suspending the monthly meetings during July, August and September was placed before the club and by an almost unanimous vote the meetings were discontinued.

Miss Helen Hilty presented the annual treasurer's report and other routine matters were disposed of. Closing the business session, Miss Hilty was called to the chair and with a few remarks accepting her new office she adjourned the meeting.

Local Men to Lead Johnson's Campaign

Boosters for George H. Johnson in his race for district attorney organized in San Bernardino last night, with the local communities being represented in the list of officers. District vice-presidents were elected in communities throughout the county. Clair E. Kirk is the local vice-president. H. H. Thomas has the same office for Cucamonga. Charles Motsinger, Alta Loma and R. S. Jones, Etiwanda. Col. H. J. Caldwell, Ontario, was chosen secretary of the Johnson-

UPLAND EXCHANGE WOULD CARRY BIG PART OF BURDEN

Firm Presents Figures to R. R. Commission; Other Side Will Get Hearing

SEPTEMBER 23 IS DATE

Business Telephones Affected Greater, But All Users Asked to Pay More

Asking for an increase which, if granted, would result in telephone subscribers of the Ontario-Upland Telephone company paying annually $54,000 more than they are now paying, officials of that company told the state railway commission Wednesday that such a return would permit only a dividend of from 5 to 6 per cent.

Heaping high their data in bound manuscripts, the officials took up three hours at the hearing this week, and beginning September 23 this information will be publicly analyzed.

Examiner William T. Satterwhite presided over the hearing in the Ontario city hall. Carl H. Lorbeer, district commercial manager, and Ernest Erwin, engineer and assistant to the vice-president and general manager of the company, presented the mass of statistics and figures.

Of this increase, approximately 35 per cent would come from persons in the Upland exchange. This would mean an annual increase of $18,900 over what local telephone users are now paying to the company.

Of the 4800 subscribers served by the company, 1700 are handled through the local exchange.

An unofficial analysis of some of these figures reveals that increases ranging up to nearly 90 per cent are sought. Under the new plan, if the bill is paid by the 15th of the current month, a reduction of 25c will be made. In the figures used in this analysis the net increase with the 25c reduction made, is considered.

The four-party line wall set, now used by 1650 subscribers in the territory, would cost net $2.00 a month, an increase of 50c. The individual line desk set, used by 279 persons, would cost net $3.75 if the rates are allowed, an increase of $1.50.

In general, the business telephones receive the greatest proposed price increase, the individual line set, costing $5 a month, as compared with $2.75 for the present charge, an increase of $2.25.

For years the telephone company has lost money, the officials declared, and in spite of changes of management and improvements would continue to lose money, they said. The net loss during the last 14 years was $10,770, Mr. Lorbeer pointed out.

When the Associated Telephone Utilities, with head offices in Chicago, took over the local plant in 1928, it became evident that an increase would be necessary, Mr. Irwin testified and since then he has been directing the preparation of data.

Edward E. Gray, city attorney, and Richard G. Manley, city service manager, took part in short discussions, but little opportunity was given for detailed questioning. Clair E. Kirk, chamber secretary, and R. O. Price were also present, in addition to George L. Winter and Fred Owing of the Cucamonga Service club.

Ontario was represented by E. H. Jolliffe, city attorney; Austin Burt, service manager, and Ben W. Spencer, chamber secretary.

J. J. Duell and L. S. Wing of the county farm bureau, were also present.

From now until September, these men will make a detailed study of the figures and if they believe the increases are not justified, make an organized defense at the September hearing.

In the meantime, the commission engineers and attorneys will also analyze the figures.

Wider Recognition of Resorts Needed

The mountain resorts of San Bernardino county draw many thousands of people to the county every year and mean much in the way of revenue. Here and there the hills and canyons are dotted with numerous cottages owned by those who like to get away from the towns and cities to the quiet and peace of the mountains. The county's resorts are attracting larger numbers each year also, and they are becoming world famous.

The San Bernardino Sun says: "San Bernardino county will benefit materially from the plans for widespread publicity of our famous mountain scenery and resort facilities by the active group comprising the Rim of the World club. Despite the somewhat limited advertising campaigns of recent years we know that upwards of a million persons visit the Rim of the World resort regions each summer."

"In comparison the census taken at the gates of Uncle Sam's leading national parks seems small, yet aside from a few holiday crowds the San Bernardino mountains have never been taxed to accommodate the many thousands of vacationists who have learned to love the scenery of crags and valleys, or breathe the pine and cedar-scented air of countless hilltops."

"Something like a decade ago the famous 101-mile drive, the mountain lakes, and numerous other attractions of this near-by wilderness of nature were being broadcast by newspaper and magazine with an attendant popularity of the mountain resorts growing each year. In more recent years, however, these advertising efforts have been slackened."

"The San Bernardino mountains are in a class by themselves as an ideal vacation land that is accessible to the great Southland valleys. The story of their attractions is one which deserves the most widespread advertising. There need be no fear that superlatives will raise too high the expectations of the prospective vacationist, for there is always unexplored vista ahead even for the veteran mountaineer, who has ridden the entire crest many many times."

"Since the completion of broad state highways to the Rim of the World resorts there has been an increasing tendency on the part of the urban dweller to regard this paradise of nature as a mere week end stopping place. The result has been that the real beauty spots of this vast vacation land are too often missed by parties intent on lowering speed records between their home town and some mountain goal. The Rim of the World club appreciates this situation and is adopting a commendable policy of broad gauge scope destined to attract the visitor not for a day but for his entire period of leave."

Back to Our Boyhood Scenes

No matter where one may go—or where one may live—how old he may get—or how many friends he may make—or how dear to him these friends become—there is no place that appeals to one in the same way as the place where one was born and spent his boyhood days. That's the feeling of this News Guy as we are planning a trip back to just such a spot—we know it's the same thrill that comes to the hearts of all when they plan a trip "back to the old home."

More than twenty-five years have elapsed since we left that little town in Missouri as a boy—and we always have a desire to go back again. You have the same desire to visit your childhood home. Father and mother have long since passed on, but some of the children are still there. Very few of the boyhood chums and acquaintances remain in the old home town. Practically every familiar scene is changed—all the business houses around the square are in different hands. The old court house in the center of the square was replaced by a handsome new one years ago. Practically every familiar scene has been changed. Yet there is still the lure to go back—not to make a home but to live again for a few days the joys and sorrows of a youngster.

In those days an automobile trip a distance such as from California to Missouri was an unknown experience—in fact, the automobile had not been seen by countless thousands. But in this day thousands upon thousands travel across the continent in this manner each year. The mode of travel is significant of the change in the mode of living. What were then considered as great luxuries are now demanded as necessities. Travel has become almost a universal custom among our people, whereas in those years it was the unusual when an extended vacation was taken. A business man who took his family on a long journey was the rare exception—now it's the custom. And a vacation has come to be considered almost a necessity along with other changes in our living conditions.

So the changes in the old home town are nothing more than the universal custom. Few who were born there remained to spend their mature years. The friends of our youth are scattered far and near. A short time of visiting and chatting with those few who do remain and we will be anxious to get on our way. Yet our desire will still remain to visit the old home town again. This is our experience—it is yours: it is the desire of every normal person.

Daylight Saving Proposition on Ballot

A record is said to have been established in the response to the proposition of placing state wide daylight saving upon the ballot to be voted on as a law in California this fall. In less than two weeks after the petitions were circulated more than 100,000 signatures were secured, thousands over the minimum required. This enthusiastic response would tend to show the sentiment of the people strongly in favor of daylight saving.

Under the proposed law all clocks in the state would be set one hour ahead on the last Sunday of April, 1931, and turned back one hour on the last Sunday of September. Thereafter the time change would go into effect for the same five months period every year, as is now the established schedule in most of the large eastern centers of population, eastern Canada and many European countries.

In support of the daylight saving project it is pointed out that beginning the normal activities of the day one hour earlier in summer gives to everyone in California an extra hour of sunshine after the close of the usual business day at 5 p. m., as there would be full sunlight until about 8 o'clock every evening during the daylight saving period of five months. The value of these extra hours, which total 154 for the period, in the way of outdoor recreation, motoring, golfing, gardening, family parties and similar joys available to Californians all summer, is declared to be incalculable.

From an economic standpoint also the time change, which would place California on the same time as Chicago, New York and other large business centers, is said to be desirable as it would eliminate heavy losses now sustained by many financial and commercial interests through the disparity in time between this state and the Atlantic seaboard. Under the existing system the difference in time is four hours when New York is on a daylight saving schedule every summer.

Greatest Growth in History

Hemet News: California has broken all records of population growth in the history of America, and probably of the world. During the decade just closed the state has added more than 2,000,000 people. This growth of a state in ten years was approached only once. From 1900 to 1910 New York increased its population 1,850,000, but this hitherto unprecedented increase was but 25 per cent, whereas California has made a percentage growth of 64 in the present count.

In 1910 California had approximately 3,500,000 people; today the total is over 5,500,000. Of this 2,000,000 increase it is likely the final figures will show that at least 1,350,000 of it is south of the Tehachapi, and the increase for the eleven counties of the south will be nearly 100 per cent.

Figures so imposing mean something. To have outstripped all recorded history in population is a record that needs no elaboration or explanation.

The Oil "Squeeze"

Torrance Herald: One can draw but one conclusion: It isn't a case of over-production, it's over-greed. The iron hand of the big oil companies is whipping the smaller producers into line. A few months ago it was the independent marketers and refiners who were being "disciplined" by the big oil masters. You will remember how they increased the price of crude oil and lowered the price of gasoline. That was the "squeeze" that nearly broke some of the smaller refiners and seriously crippled one of the largest independent marketers. Having "whipped" the ambitious independent refiners and marketers, the big oil companies now are turning their attention to crippling the producers.

Izaak Walton Project

Excerpts of Addresses Given at Waltonian Convention in Chicago

Fertilizer placed in fishing ponds results in larger fish, Leigh Thompson, secretary of the Orange Belt council Izaak Walton league, said in his report on the national convention at Chicago. In this regard he quoted H. A. Wiebe, experimental station, Fairport, Iowa. Experiments show planting bass 1/2 to 1 1/2 inches will only add feed for the older fish. He favors raising bass 4 to 5 inches before planting. The above and below experiments are records of the Fairport station:

One acre pond produces 25 to 52 thousand fry per acre.

One acre pond produces 8500 to 10,000 hand counted fingerlings. The difference in cost of rearing the 10,000 fry and 10,000 fingerlings is negligible.

Fertilizer increases fish from 30 to 500 per cent. Of course, the fish do not feed on the fertilizer but the fertilizer creates and assists vegetation and plant food. Experiments show seventy samples taken from each pond—82 per cent increase where superphosphate was used, 149 per cent where sheep manure was used and 500 per cent where sow bean meal was used.

The fish were not fed anything except what was raised in the ponds. Get minnows in the ponds, not a minnow that feeds on the same thing the bass does—suggests Golden Minnows and Black Hat Minnows. Gold fish not suitable for bass. Must keep vegetation under control. Not too much vegetation.

Judge Frank W. Burford, national director, Oklahoma, The League and Young America, said: "Some years ago Samuel L. Morley, past president of the Oklahoma division, told me that when he presided as warden of a great penitentiary, he was accustomed to grant to convicts whose prison record had been excellent, the consideration of an occasional trip outside the prison walls. When application was made he required a statement of the reason for going and what the prisoner desired to do while away. Some just wanted to be away, some wished to visit friends or family, some desired to see pictures, but during

Sturdy Shoes Made From Worn Tires by Improvised Method

"The next time you want a pair of boudoir slippers or hiking boots try manufacturing them from an old, discarded automobile tire," is the suggestion of Jack Dority, manager of the D. & D. Rubber company, local Fisk dealers. "Recently some foreign governments, in countries where shoes were conspicuous by their absence and hook-worm conspicuous by its presence, have compelled all inhabitants to wear some kind of foot covering. Leather being costly, native ingenuity turned to old automobile casings as a substitute for standard footwear."

Several pictures have been received from abroad by the Fisk Tire company of sturdy, serviceable shoes made from worn tires. The upper part is made of cord fabric reclaimed from the old casings, while the soles, which are riveted to the uppers by metal staples, are sections of tread, guaranteed not to skid in wet weather and impervious to blowouts.

"If this style continues to gain favor," continued Mr. Dority, "it looks as though some of the new Air-Flight tires for export, when they have done their duty on the wheels of a car, will deliver many more miles of service as foot covering. Tender feet might find these improvised shoes somewhat rough and hard to wear, but to the natives whose feet are toughened by exposure, unfinished seams and protruding rivet heads offer no inconvenience or discomfort."

Waltonian Leaders, Forest Heads Co-Operating On Closing Policy

Forestry officials and leaders in the Izaak Walton league movement are agreed on the forest closing program and not opposing each other, as has been implied in recent statements in the county seat and metropolitan papers, J. E. Elliott, supervisor of the San Bernardino national forest, and Dave L. Vasbinder, president of the Orange Belt council of the league, said.

When Mr. Elliott returned from San Francisco after a 10-day trip, he wrote to Russell Morgan, president of the Colton chapter and former head of the league in the southland, concerning newspaper stories that indicated a rift between his office and the league.

"This, of course, is not the case, as you and many members of the league know," Mr. Elliott wrote. "Permit me to take this method of assuring you and your members that the forest service fully understands and appreciates the association's high ideals and the good work the league is doing along conservation lines, particularly in regard to forest conservation and wild life."

"It has been my great privilege to have attended your meetings and I am most gratified to note the splendid spirit of fellowship and cooperation obviously prevailing between the league and the local forest officers, and while we may not always entirely agree on policy, I am sure that our differences, if there be any, can easily be worked out around the conference table."

"I desire to reiterate what I have often told you; that we will welcome any suggestions your league may have to offer, and I feel confident that we shall continue to work in harmony toward our common goal."

The true attitude of the league was set forth by Mr. Vasbinder in a statement, which follows in part:

"As stated in a resolution about one year ago, addressed to the county supervisors and others, the league is opposed to any closing where there are any other possible methods. Where no protection to forests and watersheds exist, there is no objection."

"The league is striving to improve the condition of the forests, and to aid the forestry service in their work."

"At a recent meeting of the state forestry board at Sacramento, called by the governor, it was pointed out that this state is spending annually $40,000,000 for roads, and the pitiful sum of less than half a million dollars for water and forest conservation. The governor made the statement that the people of California were sold on highways and would pay their taxes for them. Also, that they were not sold on water and forest conservation, and that before great sums from taxes could be used for such work, it would be necessary to sell the idea."

"The closing and prohibiting of use of the mountain areas greatly retards the selling of such an idea."

Cattleman Visits James A. Pitts Here

Nations Festival Report Made; Two Girls to Camps

Report on the recent Festival of Nations was made by Miss Clara Bissell at a meeting of the executive board of the Chaffey Community Girls' Work Organizations held at Chaffey Tuesday.

Despite the considerable expense attached to the presentation of the colorful festival, in which many special costumes and decorations were required, Miss Bissell's report showed a profit of $50. Of this sum, $25 was sent to the Honolulu Y. W. C. A. and $25 to the Y. W. C. A. in Constantinople, to be used in sending a native girl in each of those cities to a Y. W. C. A. summer camp.

The festival was not given with the object of raising money and, although it proved a financial success, the real value of the event, Miss Bissell declared, lay in its educational opportunities and the fostering of the spirit of world fellowship through better understanding of the peoples of other nations.

Additional Funds Will Be Sought For Building;
More Money In

Nearing $36,000 mark in its building fund, the Methodist church building committee has decided to proceed immediately with the building fund campaign program and seek additional cash and pledges.

Approximately $35,000 was received by the church in an offering Sunday and since then additional contributions have been received to swell the total nearly a $1000 more.

Additional cash payments and pledges are expected without further solicitation. Those in charge are preparing to appeal for more financial help and to execute as soon as possible an intensive solicitation program.

Indications are that the mark of approximately $60,000 will be reached to enable an early start in the actual construction.

About a month later he asked his wife:

"How are your turkeys getting along?"

"Oh, I decided that it was getting too late for turkeys so I put them in your lunch."

California Crops Over $462,000,000

California farmers did a gross business of $462,740,000 in 1929, according to figures compiled and released by E. E. Kaufman, chief of the federal-state crop reporting service of the state department of agriculture.

The value of the field and fruit crops of the state last year was $53,782,000 in excess of 1928, although production was considerably less than the previous year due to killing frosts in the early spring and to unfavorable weather conditions generally.

Field crops for 1929 were valued at $201,286,000, as compared with $190,009,000 in 1928, while fruit crops totaled $261,454,000 last year, as against $218,949,000 in 1928.

The total tonnage of all field crops for 1929 was 7,844,620, or 327,630 tons less than produced in 1928. Although no estimate of the fruit tonnage has been made, Kaufman declares it was considerably

Experience of large fleet owners reveals the unusual reliability and economy of the new Ford

A SIGNIFICANT TRIBUTE to the value of the new Ford is found in its increasing use by Federal, state and city governments and by large industrial companies which keep careful day-by-day cost records. In most instances, the Ford has been chosen only after exhaustive tests of every factor that contributes to good performance—speed, power, safety, comfort, low cost of operation and up-keep, reliability and long life.

Prominent among the companies using the Ford are the Associated Companies of the Bell System, Armour and Company, The Borden Company, Continental Baking Corporation, Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, General Electric Company, Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, Kellogg Company, Knickerbocker Ice Company, Morton Salt Company, Pillsbury Flour Mills Company, The Procter and Gamble Company, and Swift & Company.

Each of these companies uses a large number of Ford cars and trucks. The Associated Companies of the Bell System use more than eight thousand.

Modern business moves at a fast pace and it needs the Ford. Daily, in countless ways and places, it helps to speed the production and delivery of the world's goods and extend the useful service of men and companies.

Constant, steady operation over many thousands of miles emphasizes the advantages of the sound design of the Ford car, its high quality of materials, and unusual accuracy in manufacturing. Beneath its graceful lines and beautiful colors there is a high degree of mechanical excellence.

An example of the value built into the Ford is the use of more than twenty ball and roller bearings. They are hidden within the car and you may never see them. Yet they play an important part in satisfactory, economical performance. Their function is similar to the jewels of a fine watch.

Throughout the Ford chassis, a ball or roller bearing is used at every place where it is needed to reduce friction and wear and give smooth, reliable mechanical operation.

At many points, as on the transmission counter-shaft, clutch release, fan and pump shaft, and front drive shaft, these ball and roller bearings are used where less costly types of bearings might be considered adequate.

Additional instances of the high quality built into the Ford are the extensive use of steel forgings, fully enclosed four-wheel brakes, Rustless Steel, four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves, torque-tube drive, three-quarter floating rear axle, and the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield.

The Ford policy has always been to use the best possible material for each part and then, through large production, give it to the public at low cost.

Club Women Celebrate Tenth Anniversary of Organization—

Celebrating the tenth birthday anniversary of the Upland Business and Professional Women's club proved to be a happy task when more than 30 guests gathered Tuesday night in Crowell hall for the June dinner meeting.

Utilizing the club colors, the royal purple and gold and green, the birthday committee had arranged special floral decorations. Yard lengths of miniature trellis, fashioned of strips of green cardboard which were daintily entwined with feathery fern and small flowers of various colors, were placed at intervals down the length of the tables and alternating with these colorful strips were baskets of the graceful golden coreopsis and purple larkspur. Holding the place of honor on the speakers table was a mammoth golden birthday cake handsomely decorated in purple and green and bearing the inscription "B. and P. W. C.—1920-1930." Around the cake in alternating colors were 10 large green and purple candles.

As the meeting opened, the president, Mrs. Margaret H. Wright, called upon Mrs. F. H. Manker, charter member and first president of the club, to light the ten candles.

Between the courses of the excellent dinner the moments were enlivened with spirited community singing, some of the songs being delightfully nonsensical and others, equally enjoyable, being of more serious sentiment. Mrs. Vernon V. Paine was accompanist for the singing.

When the dessert course was served the president called upon Mrs. Mark H. Bailey to cut the very delicious birthday cake and each one present was served a generous portion.

With Miss Leola Lee serving as program chairman, a diversified program was presented.

As the club's first president and the instigator of its organization, Mrs. Manker, looking ten years into the past, gave a brief and interesting account of the early days of the club and named its 15 charter members, two of whom, Mrs. Manker and Mrs. Gertrude Thudum, were present.

Turning again to the present and the future, Mrs. Mark H. Bailey spoke of the present activities of the club and aptly likening the club to a baseball team, urged all the members to rally loyally around the new officers and to serve the club in unity and harmony.

Delightful numbers were given by two charming young sisters, the Misses Helen and Esther Guy. Accompanied by Miss Mildred Opitz, Helen, who possesses a sweet, rich toned voice, sang a lovely number, "Here Is My Heart," and Esther, whose dramatic talent has won for her several high school honors, very cleverly presented a humorous reading.

Being a natural humorist, which attribute includes a clear understanding of human nature, the Rev. E. J. Statom, retired Presbyterian minister and speaker of the evening, delighted his audience with his mixture of quaint humor and philosophy and, providing "food for thought," he served up a ten-course menu of facts and figures relative to the present-day economic situation, his vivid presentation of his subject holding the deeply interested attention of the club women.

Citing the rising supremacy of machinery over manual labor and the resultant decreasing demand for human labor, the steady, if not rapid, gravitation of capital into the controlling hands of a few financial dictators, the ever-lengthening bread line and the persistent effort of the masses to deaden their thinking power with excessive pleasure and stimulating excitement, the speaker drew a picture that could not be called rosy, and declared the people of this and the coming generation must prepare to face radical changes in economic conditions if a final beneficial adjustment is to be secured.

The club meeting was concluded with a business session.

Tuesday Evening Bridge Club Is Entertained—

With all the members and several visitors attending, Mrs. Sam B. Rowe and Mrs. H. C. Moore were hostesses Tuesday evening at the Rowe home on Euclid avenue to the Tuesday Evening Bridge club.

Enjoying the pleasant hospitality of Mrs. Rowe and Mrs. Moore were Mrs. E. C. Mehl, Mrs. Paul Bodenhamer, Mrs. Paul Adams, Mrs. R. F. Bordwell, Mrs. Clair E. Kirk, Mrs. John B. Craig, Mrs. W. H. Craig, Jr., Mrs. P. H. McQuillen, Mrs. J. F. Sawyer, Mrs. J. L. Grahame, Mrs. Owen Atwood,

G. T. Embroidery Club Has Delightful Meeting—

Planning an especially happy day for their fellow club members, Mrs. J. F. Hamilton and Mrs. Charles O. Deverts were hostesses Thursday to the G. T. Embroidery club at a delightful afternoon party and dinner.

Placed advantageously about the lounge were large low bowls of exquisite pastries, a protusion of these dainty blossoms also being used on the dinner table which was lovely both in appointments and decoration.

During the afternoon the club members, who have been friends for years, enjoyed merry visiting while occupied with their embroidery work.

At 6:30 a delicious dinner was served, a pretty touch being noted when the dessert course was served, a dainty boutonniere of pastries being on each plate.

The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. I. N. Hamer and Mrs. Bert Spicer in Pomona.

Enjoying the happy afternoon as guests of Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. Deverts were Mrs. E. W. Alford, Mrs. H. O. Blohm, Mrs. C. E. Allen, Mrs. Bell Wisely, Mrs. Fred Wilding, Mrs. L. O. Bowman, Mrs. Bert Spicer, Mrs. I. N. Hamer, the two later of Pomona, and two visitors, Miss Lois Kent and Miss Florence Armstrong.

Mrs. Kuhns Entertains in Honor of Bride-To-Be—

A miscellaneous shower, most delightful in its arrangements, was enjoyed by a large group of friends when Mrs. B. H. Kuhns and her mother, Mrs. J. H. Ehrisman, assisted by Mrs. F. B. Kuhns, entertained Saturday afternoon at Mrs. Kuhns' home on Mountain avenue, in honor of Miss Martha Fye, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin A. Fye of Ontario, whose marriage to Glen Whitlock will take place in July.

The affair was in the nature of a garden party and bright lawn parasols dotted the spacious, shaded lawn, making a colorful setting for the happy gathering.

The shower of gifts was presented to the honoree in a novel manner that served also as amusing entertainment for the guests. A mimic wedding was held with those taking the masculine parts being cleverly arrayed in men's attire. Miss Dorothy Carr was the lovely bride and Virginia Clay the manly groom. Mrs. Emmett Ball was matron of honor and Miss Gertrude Plasman, maid of honor, and each carried a bouquet of sweet peas, Shasta daisies and baby breath. Miss Harriet Fye served as best man and Gene Baker was flower girl. Miss Evelyn Stein took the part of the officiating minister. The bride was very "nuptial" looking with her wreath of orange blossoms and carried a lovely bouquet of rosebuds and daisies.

The ceremony was performed under a beautiful archway on the lawn and it was after the "knot was tied" that the bride's bouquet proved to be the key to the treasure chest, when the make-believe bride presented the bouquet to the bride-to-be and directed her to the chest of lovely gifts.

Concluding the very pleasant afternoon the hostesses served their guests with delicious refreshments. Those who joined with Mrs. Kuhns and Mrs. Ehrisman in honoring Miss Fye were:

Miss Harriet Fye, Mrs. Benjamin A. Fye, Mrs. E. E. Carr, Miss Dorothy Carr, Mrs. W. D. Clay, Miss Virginia Clay, Mrs. Tucker, Miss Mary Louise Tucker, Mrs. William Plasman, Miss Gertrude Plasman, Mrs. Fay Baker, Miss Jean Baker, Mrs. Jacob Stein, Miss Evelyn Stein, Mrs. C. P. Boesch, Mrs. Salzeberger, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. John McAndrews, Miss McAndrews, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. A. T. Hamilton, Miss Jennie Baker, Miss Katherine Staudte, Mrs. W. A. Panky, Miss Mary Neva Panky, Mrs. W. D. Ball, Mrs. Emmett Ball and Emmett, Jr., Mrs. R. L. Vandegriff, Mrs. John Cruze, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. S. R. Brewster, Mrs. J. F. Fredendall, Mrs. J. T. Vivian, Mrs. George Mahan, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Alexander Grant, Mrs. George Grant, Mrs. Muriel Grant, Mrs. George Spangenberg, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Ella Wood, Miss Olive Wood, Mrs. Susan Davis, Mrs. F. B. Kuhns, Mrs. Raymond Holden, Mrs. John Paschke, Mrs. Harry Walker, Mrs. Knapp and Mrs. Susan Davidson.

Firemen's Wives Enjoy Day in the Mountains—

A pleasant day at the firemen's cabin in San Antonio canyon was provided for the firemen's wives by Mrs. Glenn Atwood when she was hostess to the club members Wednesday at an all day meeting and bridge luncheon.

A delicious contributed dish luncheon enjoyed with the keen appetites of mountaineers, was served at the noon hour and with tables arranged on the large sun porch recently added by the firemen, the afternoon was spent in spirited bridge playing, high prize being won by Mrs. E. C. Mehl and Mrs. L. N. Kirk receiving the low award.

The club will meet at the cabin on the first Wednesday in each month during the summer season, Mrs. Mehl being listed as hostess for the July gathering.

Guests of Mrs. Atwood Wednesday were Mrs. E. C. Mehl, Mrs. L. J. Linkey, Mrs. C. K. Francisco, Mrs. F. H. Manker, Mrs. Hubert L. Manker, Mrs. Amos Colborn, Mrs. Eldon Atwood, Mrs. Charles O. Deverts, Mrs. L. N. Kirk, Mrs. Milton Huxtable and Mrs. G. A. Brest and three children, Shirley Manker, Teddy Atwood and Annette Linkey.

Mrs. Elva Bradfield Honored by Auxiliary—

Mrs. Elva Bradfield, who will leave soon for her new home in Reseda, was a guest of honor at a bridge party which was given at the conclusion of the business meeting held last night in the American Legion clubhouse by the Legion Auxiliary.

A very happy social time was enjoyed and spirited bridge playing occupied a portion of the time. Mrs. Bradfield was awarded the guest prize and Mrs. Charles V. Benson won high score prize. The evening was concluded by the serving of refreshments. The committee in charge of the event was Mrs. Glenn Hipes, chairman, Mrs. L. J. Linkey, Mrs. John D. Howe, Mrs. Earl Johnson, Mrs. R. M. Klindt, Mrs. M. H. Moremen, Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. G. V. Sleuman, and Mrs. Maude Brogan.

During the business meeting, at which Mrs. Thelma Kirk presided, plans were made for a picnic to be held some time this month.

Mrs. E. E. Marsh, district president, made her official visit at this meeting.

His Text

The minister was putting on a new collar, and was having the usual trouble with it. "Bless the collar!" he said impatiently, as he tugged and tugged. Bless the blessed collar! "My dear," said his wife, "what is your text for this morning's sermon?"

"F-fourteenth verse of f-fifth Psalm," he replied in short gasps. "The words of his mouth were s-smoother than butter, but there was w-war in his heart."

SPECIAL CONCERTS FOR COMING WEEK

Chaffey Musicians Will Appear in Two Programs; Prizes Announced

The two commencement concerts announced by the Chaffey department of music, both of which are free to the public, take place next week.

Not only the junior college and high school glee clubs but also the Mexican girls of the extension department will appear. The work of these various units has been carried on extensively through the year and they will present a brilliant program. Nearly 200 singers will participate.

The winning compositions in the Blakeslee prize contest, conducted for the harmony class of the junior college, will be presented at this concert. The selections entered in this contest are now in the hands of the judges who are Los Angeles musicians of ability.

The public is invited to both these concerts, which are free.

HAROLD COOK TO REMAIN AS HEAD

School Principal Will Continue; Chaffey Will Pay For Ninth Graders

Harold W. Cook will be retained for the third year as principal of the Upland junior high school, and indications are there will be no changes in the regular teaching force.

Teachers and terms of an agreement between the Chaffey and the local boards were discussed by the local board this morning. Local ninth grade students and perhaps ninth grade students from Cucamonga and Alta Loma will attend the local junior high school and the Chaffey board will be asked to pay rent on the basis of $400 a room used.

Ninth grade students come under the jurisdiction of Chaffey, but the students will be placed here to relieve the congestion on the Chaffey campus. These changes are being contemplated as the result of the necessity on the part of the Chaffey board to retract its former program of expansion to provide funds for building on the campus.

Salaries to be paid Mr. Cook, Lois Kent and Cleone Lukehart will be paid partly by the Chaffey board and partly by the local board.

The proposed agreement has not been accepted by the Chaffey board, but Dr. Merton E. Hill, principal, and some members of the Chaffey group were present with the Upland officials this morning.

GRADUATES GIVE, AND HEAR ADDRESS

Dr. Hill Is Principal Speaker When Alta Loma Group Gets Diplomas

This is a contracting and an expanding world and as graduates enter new experiences in life they have to contribute to both phases of the universe and it is their duty to offer their best services. Dr. Merton E. Hill, Chaffey principal, said in addressing the graduates at the Alta Loma school last night.

While Dr. Hill was the principal speaker, there were other addresses and recitations given by members of the graduating class. Archie L. Moore appeared in solo numbers and the Chaffey orchestra also gave musical selections under the directions of Fred Wilding.

Education will open new fields to the students, and in this way opens up an expanding world. As they learn their world will become larger, Dr. Hill said. On the other hand, it is a contracting world for science has narrowed space and shortened time in travel and communication.

A large audience listened to the address and the varied program was received with enthusiasm. Miss Lillian Widmer is principal and presented the class for diplomas.

Following are the names of the graduates and their parents: Henrietta Curletti, Secondo Curletti; Arlene Henderson, Grover Henderson; Thea Riedel, Paul Helmer; Helen Starnes, Arthur Starnes; Mary Walsh, R. TAPPING SURPLUS SOUGHT BY GRIER

Supervisor Tells of Effort Bting Made to Get Tax Revision

In the state treasury there is a surplus of $29,000,000, and C. E. Grier, chairman of the board of supervisors, believes that the people who contributed largest to that fund should be benefited by its distribution, and at the Lions club meeting in The Sycamores yesterday noon he told of efforts being made to return part of that money to this county.

Through the operation of Amendment No. 1, which enables the state to get the taxes from the railroad property in the county, this district is one of the largest losers in the state, he explained.

Twenty-five other counties have united with San Bernardino in a campaign to place an additional amendment in the state constitution which would allow the legislature to reimburse the counties.

Such an amendment, he said, would not raise any taxes, but would enable that surplus to be tapped and the money returned to the people who have paid more than their share in taxes.

If the proposed amendment, which is known as No. 21, is successful in the November election, county taxes can be eventually reduced from 25 to 50 per cent.

The southern division of the state farm bureau has joined in the support and has asked that the division in the San Francisco territory retract its former action of disapproval.

Mr. Grier traced the tax situation, told of the various conferences with the legislative tax commission and the recent organization in the north that brought 26 counties together in a state-wide plan to win the amendment.

Fred E. Draper, president, was in charge of the meeting.

W. W. ATHERTON IS KILLED WEDNESDAY

Brother of Two Upland Women Victim of Automobile; Funeral Saturday

A tragic death which literally snatched a husband from his wife's arms and flung him dead at her feet and brought sorrow to two sisters in Upland, occurred Wednesday night when Gillman Hot Springs near W. W. Atherton, brother of Miss Nell Atherton and Mrs. Jessie McKinney, was instantly killed when struck by an automobile in which a high school boy and two girls were riding.

Mr. and Mrs. Atherton, who recently moved from Los Angeles to take charge of Clark's Coffee shop near Gillman Hot Springs, had closed their shop about 8:30 Wednesday night and were walking over to the Gillman hotel a short distance away, when the accident occurred. The two were walking arm in arm on the proper side of the road when a car approaching from behind them suddenly swerved in its course and struck Mr. Atherton.

Announce Teachers For Summer Bible School in Upland

All plans are made and preparations are practically completed for the holding in the Tenth street grammar school of the Daily Vacation Bible school, sponsored by the Community Council of Religious Education. Miss Jessie Brown will be general superintendent of the school.

Monday, June 16, is named as registration day, the pupils to be entered between 9 and 10 a. m.

Teh school will be organized into three departments. The kindergarten will be led by Miss Dorothy Ruth and Miss Gertrude Eymann. In the primary department, Mrs. H. M. Moremen will be superintendent, with Mrs. Hazel Farmer and Miss Lucy Baily as teachers. The Rev. A. J. Neuenschwander will be superintendent of the junior department and the teachers will be Mrs. Lindsley and Mrs. Ward.

Attention of the parents is called to the fact the superintendents and teachers are especially trained for the work of the vacation school, most of them being experienced teachers in the public schools.

The young driller had just passed down the street in his new car.

First Girl—"I think his new car is awfully cute."

Second Girl—"So do I, and you should see it play dead on a lonely road."

Mrs. Atherton felt the force of the shock as he was torn from her arm and she saw him tossed into the air, only to fall to the ground lifeless. Apparently death was instantaneous.

The occupants of the car rushed to give assistance and others came from the hotel. Later, friends brought Mrs. Atherton to Upland where she spent the night with her sisters-in-law.

Thursday morning Owen E. Atwood accompanied Mrs. Atherton, Mrs. McKinney, Miss Atherton and Mrs. H. L. Nafius to Hemet where an inquest was held, the jury returning an open verdict.

The driver of the car, a resident of Hemet, had been placed under arrest shortly after the accident. Funeral services for Mr. Atherton will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at Richardson's funeral home in Ontario. According to present plans, the Rev. Fred S. Carter will conduct the services and the interment will be in Bellevue cemetery, the graveside service being conducted by Ontario Lodge No. 391, F. and A. M.

YOUTH CONFESSES SCHOOL ROBBERIES

Dale Brown, 12, Arrested With Car Taken From Stewart Assn. Garage

Mystery surrounding the frequent robberies at the Tenth street school and the frequent disappearance of a small car, owned by the Stewart Citrus association, came to an end at midnight last night when Dale Brown, 12 years old, was arrested as he was returning the machine to its garage on West Twelfth street.

After taking the machine about 8 o'clock, driving to Ontario, where he attended a theater and then to Pomona for a longer evening lark, Brown spent the rest of the night in the Ontario jail and is facing a charge of burglary. Upland policemen were organized to wait for the return of the machine and at midnight, Brown drove off Euclid west hearing for the garage, which is on the north side of the boulevard, more than one-quarter of a mile from Euclid. The youth ignored the commands of Officer Dark, but he was soon overtaken.

He confessed to Dark his thefts at the grammar school, with the comment, "Oh, yes I have broken in there many times."

On several occasions the car has been taken from the garage and returned several hours later. When it was observed that the machine was gone the local police force was organized and the long vigilance came to an end with the youth's arrest.

The lad is already a ward of the juvenile court.

Thompson and son Dean, whose home is on Fifteenth street just west of Euclid Ave., expect to leave the first of next week for their summer home on the McKenzie river near Eugene, Ore., where they spend much time each year and where hunting and fishing are excellent. They will also have friends with them.

Mr. Thompson has business properties in Eugene and Portland and each summer while north looks after these to take care of any needed improvements and repairs. Before coming to Upland he was a prominent business man in Pasadena.

ADMISSION DAY MAY BE PIONEER DAY CELEBRATION

September 9 Suggested As Time For Proposed
Event Here

Product Still Bringing Good
Last Week

September 9 is a day suitable to the Pioneer Society of San Bernardino to participate in an event here honoring the state's pioneers and commemorating the occasion of the placing of the Madonna of the Trail monument on Euclid avenue at Twelfth street.

In view of the fact that the state's only monument of its kind honoring the pioneer mothers was placed in Upland, chamber of commerce officials look upon the event as forming a basis for a yearly observance and a time to give recognition to the people who pioneered the state's early development.

It would also be a time for pioneers to reminisce with pioneers, for them to enjoy the sports popular in their youthful days, and to enjoy an appropriate program.

Indications are that pioneers would come from all parts of Southern California and that Upland would be host to some of the state's earliest settlers.

Chair E. Kirk, chamber secretary, met with the San Bernardino pioneers Saturday, when the September 9 date was suggested.

Mr. Kirk saw no obstacle to the date. Chamber directors will definitely decide on the day at their next meeting.

September 9 will be observed throughout the state as admission day.

Retail Meat Men Hold Meeting in Sycamores Monday

Meeting in The Sycamores Monday night, the Retail Meat Men's association, which includes members from the West End and the cities as far west as Azusa, held the regular bi-weekly session with the wives of the members as special guests.

A business meeting was held following the dinner, at which the recently elected officers were installed. The new official staff includes William Keating of San Dimas, president; J. W. Halliwell of Ontario, vice-president; Mr. Roney of Ontario, secretary; Mr. Brewster of Pomona, treasurer, and as board of directors, Guy Clark, Ernie Olson, George Seguin, all of Upland; Mr. Kesterson and George Bogan, both of Pomona.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Statom of Alta Loma were present as guests, the Rev. Mr. Statom being the speaker of the evening.

The association meets each two weeks, the various towns represented in the group taking their turn in entertaining.

Back Taxes and Wine Offer Problem When County Wants Money

When most people or firms are back in their taxes, the county usually conducts a sale to secure the necessary money, but when it comes to the Western Fruit Products company, Cucamonga, the situation is different.

A. E. Allen, county assessor, reports that this company is behind in the official payments, but the company makes wine. The company paid $3000 in taxes last year on its huge wine duty. About the same amount is due this year. It is uncertain if the county has the power to sell the wine, which is handled through a federal permit. The matter has been referred to the district attorney's office.

Alhambra Orchestra For Camp Baldy

Music lovers are to be given a treat at Camp Baldy the coming week end, as the Alhambra chamber of commerce civic orchestra of 25 pieces are to give a varied program of symphony and popular numbers, including riffs and other arrangements, as well as solo by their cellist, in the open air auditorium at Camp Baldy Sunday at 2:30.

The program is free to the public and a large crowd is expected to take advantage of this opportunity to hear this wonderful orchestra, as well as enjoy the beauties of the San Antonio canyon, which just now is at its best with abundant water in its stream, fed by the melting snows of Old Baldy. Snow is still to be seen on the upper slopes of Old Baldy and last week a number of visitors climbed to the top.

"Young lady, were you, or were you not injured on the premises?" She blushing replied: "Your honor, I'm not very well versed in anatomy, but I was unable to sit down for a week."

Miss Stavelly's Pupils Appear in Recital—

An interesting program of several splendidly rendered numbers was given by piano pupils of Miss Martha Stavelly when they appeared in recital at Miss Stavelly's studio, 262 Euclid avenue, on Wednesday afternoon.

The youthful musicians gave decidedly creditable performances, each one showing the results of careful and competent training, as well as exhibiting much natural talent.

Indicating the interest being taken in the progress of the young people, a number of the parents and friends gathered to enjoy the recital, there being an attendance of about 40 guests.

With every pupil listed on the program taking part and presenting their numbers with technical skill and artistry, the recital was a very successful and enjoyable event.

One of the notable features of the recital was the playing by Jean Keelen of her own composition, "The Break of Dawn," which is a well written, dainty number.

The pupils participating in the recital were Donna Murkins, Ernestine Thompson, Gene Fetrow, Geraldine Gish, Elbert Lindsey, Etta Lindsey, Margaret Hill, Dorothy Ann Ward, Jean Keelen, and Vida Culver.

Following the program the guests and pupils remained to chat for a time and Miss Stavelly and her mother, Mrs. James A. Stavelly, served summer refreshments.

Special Eastern Star Meeting on May 9—

A special meeting of Upland chapter, Order Eastern Star and one to which the members are looking forward with pleasure, will be held in the Masonic temple Monday night.

The evening is designated as guest night and various officers of the several chapters in the valley will put on the initiatory work.

Following the chapter meeting and refreshments will be served. All members are expected to attend and visiting Star members will be cordially welcomed.

Red, White and Blue Club Holds Meeting—

With an attendance of forty members, the Red, White and Blue club held a happy social meeting in Crowell hall Tuesday. Gathering about the tables at the noon hour, the members enjoyed an excellent contributed dish luncheon.

During the afternoon individual needlework occupied the attention of the guests, the work, however, not being permitted to interfere with the merry conversation. Adding to the pleasure of the meeting Mrs. Iva Marr led the group in spirited community singing.

The club meets the first Tuesday in each month.

Visits Scenes of Early Campaigning

As a candidate for county supervisor from this district, Ray L. Riley "pushed every doorbell in this community," and while here on a short visit Wednesday he recalled the beginning of his political career. He was en route from Sacramento to San Bernardino, where he filed his declaration of candidacy for the office of state controller.

He was elected on the board of supervisors following his early campaign and since then he has risen in state affairs until now he is the recognized authority on tax and financial matters at Sacramento.

Appointed to the controller office in 1921 by former Governor Stephens, Mr. Riley has twice been re-elected to the post.

He is not only a state leader, but also known internationally as president of the Lions club international. He visited with several members of the Lions club on his trip here.

Clean-Up Call Clearing City

So well have Uplanders responded to the call of "clean-up" that the city officials found it necessary today to add another truck to the one already hauling off rubbish.

Richard G. Maney, city service manager, said that perhaps the work of hauling away the discarded material will have to be continued until next week.

Since so many have cleaned their property it means that those who have not will be in the small minority and it was suggested that the remaining few act at once to get in on the clean-up program.

Indications are that the city will have only a few lots to clean, which will be done after the official clean-up period ends.

Boy Scouts Will Unite in "Camporal"

Including all the scouts in the Camp Baldy district, "Camporal" will be held June 20-21, at which time the scouts of the local district camp over night and compete in contests.

Site of the get-together is on a 10-acre tract on the Santa Ana river south of Chino. Lex R. Lucas, local scout executive, is making arrangements for the event.

Entomologist Speaks to 20-30 Meeting

The continual battle being waged between the pests and the parasites was the topic of the address given by A. M. Boyce, entomologist at the Riverside experiment station, at the meeting of the Upland 20-30 club in The Sycamores Monday night.

He told of the experiments being made to find ways of combating the pests. The parasites that are placed in the groves to kill the pests are successful to a marked degree, he said.

Ralph Sage, president, was in charge of the meeting, while Phil Hamilton was program chairman. Leigh Thompson and J. Fred Anderson were guests at the club.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR CAMP CONIFER

Observations To Be Made With
Mrs. Shattuck After
Today

Plans for the girls' outing at Camp Conifer this month, were the subject of discussion at the meeting of the board of directors of the Chaffey Community Girls' Organization held Tuesday morning in the girls' club room at the Chaffey.

The camping period for girls of junior high school age will be from June 10 to June 19, while the high school girls will take their outing from June 19 to 29. Reservations far have been made with Miss Sara Bissell, but after today all reservations must be made with S. H. M. Shattuck, Army sergeant, since Miss Bissell will be at Camp Conifer making preparations for the camp.

A truck carrying supplies will leave for Camp Conifer tomorrow, with fresh fruit and jams and other articles already have been donated and anyone having something to contribute may phone the office, Ontario 992, or notify Mrs. A. L. Shattuck, Upland 55.

Substantial contributions have been made toward the cost of the large floor tents for the camp, but they are not yet paid for and any funds contributed for that purpose will be appreciated.

Leaders for the various activities have been secured and there will be swimming, handwork, nature study, music, dramatics, pioneering, and various amusements. A graduate nurse will be in attendance and the kitchen will be in charge of an experienced dietitian.

Bob Williams, Negro, Caught With Liquor

Bob Williams, that "gentleman color" who has been conducting a shining business in Upland for some months, was arrested on Sunday night on a charge of disturbing the peace.

In his car was also found about a quart of the kind of stuff he has been drinking and had made a somewhat "mean." Judge Cline sentenced him to six months in jail and suspended same pending he leave the city, which he

Firemen's Money From Ontario Will Go to Special Fund

Any money the Upland firemen from Ontario for answering calls in that city will not go to the firemen individually, but to a special fund in the local volunteer department.

Glenn M. Atwood, fire chief, was before the city council last night with a report on the department. He has not received any official word from Ontario about the plan of compensation, but explained that if money is received, it will go into the fund which has built the firemen's cabin in San Antonio canyon.

Dramatic Fraternity Formed at Chaffey

Coming as the first honorary fraternity on the Chaffey junior college campus, chapter No. 72 of Delta Psi Omega, dramatic fraternity has been established with eight members. The organization is a junior division of Alpha Psi Omega, the national dramatic fraternity in which universities and major colleges throughout the United States hold chapters.

The eight members include William Gillingwaters, Ralph Milliken, Lynn Harris, Sam Maxcy, Virginia Henderson, Virginia Walling, Ralph Herbert and Reginald Briggs.

CITRUS PRICES NOW SOME LOWER

The demand for citrus products continues good throughout the country, though not now quite so strong as a few weeks ago. This has caused a little drop in the price, though the fruit is still bringing a good price on the open market.

Harry Harlow, manager of the Exchange in this city, reports the shipment of 104 cars of fruit last week—51 cars of oranges, 47 cars of lemons, and 6 cars of grape fruit.

A teletype machine recently installed in this office is a wonderful device. From 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. market reports from all over the country are received and automatically printed on a typewriter. The reports were received by wire or telegraph and the office was not able to secure a complete service in time. At all times during the day the office is in touch with conditions just as they are moment.

HORSESHOE CLUB WILL BE FORMED

All Persons Interested Are To Meet at Chamber Office
Wednesday

All persons interested in forming a local horseshoe club are to meet in the chamber of commerce office at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night. Several have expressed a desire to participate in this sport and at this meeting it will be definitely decided if any club or league will be formed.

Horseshoe clubs already exist in Alta Loma and Etiwanda, and if a local club is formed, Cucamonga may also have a horseshoe club.

The chamber is not sponsoring a local club, but is interested in getting the sport started if there are those who want to participate in it.

Metopracitors Buy Peter Schrock Home

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schrock have sold their home at 518 East Tenth street to Mr. and Mrs. John S. Hinton of Victorville, California. Friends of the Schrocks will be glad to know they do not contemplate leaving Upland, but will buy a smaller home. The new owners are to take possession by July 1.

The Drs. Nation are successful metopracitors of long experience. They have owned a ranch near Victorville and practiced in that city. Last Christmas day their home burned, house and contents being a total loss. Postmaster E. N. Kirk of Upland has known the Drs. Nation for thirty or forty years, the two men having conducted drug stores in Newcastle and, at the same time and the families having occupied the same apartment building part of that time. They come recommended as very fine citizens—and we hope they have great success in our city.

Auxiliary Will Give Flag Day Program

Mrs. L. M. Harwood, 550 Nocta street, Ontario, Ontario, patriotic instructor for the Auxiliary of Sons of Veterans, will have charge of a Flag Day program to be held in the hall on Ontario at 8 o'clock sharp, Tuesday night, June 10.

Forest Fire Hazards Becoming Greater

With California's long rainless season approaching, attention of motorists is called to the increased fire hazard that will result to forests and grain fields. Care in handling lighted cigars, cigarettes and matches is urged by the state.

Motorists are advised that the California Highway Patrol will enforce rigidly the provisions of the law prohibiting the throwing of lighted cigars, cigarettes and matches from moving vehicles. The law defines such an act as a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for a maximum of six months, or both.

Attention of motorists is also drawn to the fact that the law prohibits the use of muffler cut-outs, a source of fire hazard because of flying sparks.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Naylor are today in Upland during the period between the close of regular school and the beginning of summer school. Mr. Naylor is a law student at the University of Southern California, taking up the work a year ago.

Not only studying intensively, but also in touch with affairs at the Merchants' Adjustment Service, a collection agency, Mr. Naylor has been very busy and is relaxing somewhat during the vacation period. They are guests of Mr. Naylor's parents on Eighth avenue.

Graduates' Robes Make Chaffey Fund

How graduates' robes can be used to build up a fund at Chaffey high school was explained today by Ernest Fischer, vice-principal, in telling of the garments being taken to San Bernardino, where on Thursday night they will be worn by the 272 graduates in that city.

Four years ago the robes were made and every year each graduate pays a small fee for the use of the garment. This fee, together with the rest paid by San Bernardino, has paid for the making of the robes and accumulated $800 in the fund. From now on, the robes will return to the fund annually $2000.

Riverside Will Play L. G. Benefit Game

With Dave Meek in the box and holding his opponents hitless for four innings, the Upland Lemon Growers baseball team suffered a 6 to 1 defeat at the hands of Riverside, Southern California 1929 champions, Wednesday.

These teams will meet again here June 17, the night following the opening of the season here. This will be a benefit game for the Lemon Growers and from indications it will be one of the best early season conflicts.

Republicans 3 to 1 Ahead of Democrats

Republicans in the county rank almost three to one ahead of the Democrats in number, it was revealed today in the announcement of Harry L. Allison, county clerk, that 40,502 voters had registered for the August primaries.

Republicans number 26,845 and Democrats have 9,951 in their ranks. Those refusing to state their party affiliations numbered 2,906. A total of 608 registered as prohibitionists and 192 as socialists.

In Upland there are 1,507 registered voters, and there is still time for more to register. The primaries come August 26 and the registration dead line closes 30 days before the vote.

Upland Circle, N. W. Plan Big Meetings

Upland Circle No. 899, Neighbors of Woodcraft, are planning a big social event for June 18, when they will enjoy a waffle supper at their hall. Dick Halton is chairman of the committee in charge and is planning a surprise program.

Another important event will take place on June 15 when Grand Guardian Minnie Hiner of Portland will be honor guest at a mammoth picnic at Redondo Beach. Many will go from Upland.

The Upland circle held a splendid meeting Wednesday night with a successful initiation.

BUILDING DETAILS NEARING FINISH

Junior College Structure Will Get Expert Attention;
Tax Is Lowered

With detailed plans prepared during the last year as a basis, definite attention to the plans for the actual work to be done on the proposed junior college building immediately will be given by a Los Angeles architect Monday.

Sum of $100,000 will be used in the building the first year, and just what part or how much will be constructed for immediate use will be determined in the conference scheduled for Monday afternoon. It is definitely known, however, that the auditorium will not be constructed. The framework for the entire building, including the first and second floors, will be constructed or either the front part of the structure will rise and be completed, according to plans announced today.

Through a process of pruning and further retractions and economy, the junior college tax for building will be increased only 34 cents instead of 50 cents as previously planned. This will make the rate for next year 80 cents, the rate for this year being 46 cents. Remainder of the rate is used for maintenance purposes.

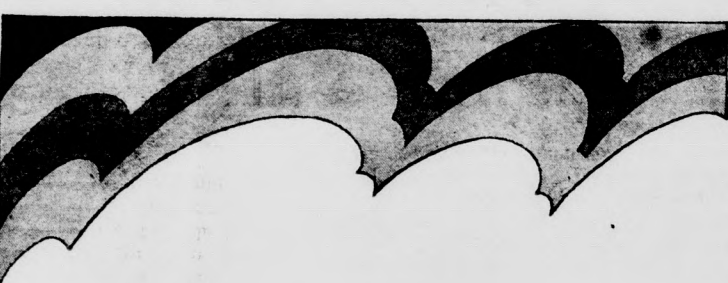

The junior college building will be located at the corner of Euclid avenue and Fifth street. Months ago when there was first talk about a Chaffey bond issue, the board offered two methods of raising the money, either by a bond issue or a direct tax. As the voters did not approve the bonds, the board is taking the alternative of the direct tax method, which will permit the structure being built over a three-year period.

A colored man got his nerve together and took a flight in an airplane. As he climbed out of the ship on its return to the field, he turned to the pilot and said:

"Suh, Ah has to thank you fo' both dem rides."
"What are you talking about?" said the aviator. "You only had one."

"No, suh," returned the passenger. "Ah done had two—mah first an' mah last."

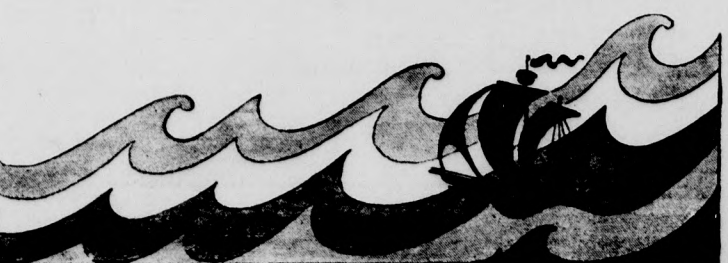

Let's Go!
"Goin' to the fair?"
"What fair?"
"Paper says, 'Fair here today and tomorrow.'"

Jack D. Howe May Build Golf Course

Jack D. Howe, D. M. Kirkwood and a person living outside the city are considering the establishment of a miniature golf course here, and Mr. Howe asked in a letter to the city council last night about the procedure in getting a permit.

Little information is known about the promoters' plans. Each one, it is reported, is seeking to get a permit which would prohibit anyone else from establishing a similar establishment here.

It is impossible, however, to give such a permit, according to the officials.

Mr. Howe explained that his brother, Walter Howe, would be in charge, if the project was realized.

W. W. Smith Honored in Chaffey Annual

W. W. Smith, city treasurer of Ontario and one of the trustees of the Chaffey trust fund, is significantly honored in being selected as the person to whom the Chaffey junior college students dedicated their annual, which was being distributed today.

Interested in education here for many years, Mr. Smith has been in touch with the school and is one of the men in charge of the money that provides many scholarships from here to other colleges.

Four hundred and sixty copies being distributed the Argus, the annual student publication appears in larger numbers than ever. Kenneth Pulver is editor and Delos Williams is business manager. It contains 104 pages, double printed and is being recognized as the best publication of its kind ever issued here.

WEATHER BOOSTS BASEBALL FEVER

One More Week of Practice
Before Six Teams Get Going in League

This is baseball weather. Baseball fans and baseball players like it. When the Upland night baseball league opens June 16, the half dozen aggregations are going to be ready.

The season is shorter than it was last year and that means the interest will start right from the first game until late in August when the championship outfit will be decided.

In two rounds, the league may result in quite a championship play-off. Winner of the first round will play winner of the second round and this series of games will probably be the best ever held on the local diamond.

Cucamonga under the leadership of Bill Kincaid and the Modern Woodmen, with O. W. Frantz at the helm, open the league, with Atwood's and Etiwanda offering the program June 18. Merchants and Lemon Growers are rivals from last season and they will tangle in the third game of the league June 20.

Scotch to the End
Miles: "Well, old Gene Mac-Donough remained Scotch to the last breath."

Pyles: "What do you mean?"
